

Eric Rodriguez

BA FALL 2024

" Order a PB&J from your local bodega"

1. Identify the problem

I'd like to order a PB&J sandwich from my bodega and would like to confirm that it's made right.
I'd also like to make time for an appropriate time to pick it up.

2. What do I need to answer the question?

What: What kind of PB&J am I in the mood for? Bread type, peanut butter smoothness, flavor of jelly

Where: Where is the bodega? Can I take a walk, or do I need to call ahead for pickup?

When: When do I need the PB&J? Should I call ahead to make sure that by the time I show up, it's ready?

How: How do I place the order? In person or by telephone, and what exactly do I say?

3. Identify all the data I need to collect:

Order preferences:

Bread: whole wheat

Peanut butter: Smooth

Jelly: Grape

Location of the Bodega: Only 5-minute walk away from home.

Pick-up time: I would like to have it around 1.00 PM for my lunch.

How to order: I can either call them at the bodega or order in person, provided they are not too busy.

4. Organize the data:

Order preferences:

Ask for whole wheat bread, smooth peanut butter, and grape jelly.

Timing: Plan to order around 12:45 PM to allow the bodega some time to prepare it for pickup at 1:00 PM.

Order method: Call ahead-ordering makes it convenient and ensures that it's ready upon arrival.

5. Find and identify the relationship:

The order time at 12:45 PM and pickup at 1:00 PM are coordinated so that if I call ahead, it will be ready. My request for PB&J will ensure they get it right and avoid confusion.

6. To find a solution:

Plan: 12:45 PM: Call bodega and order whole wheat PB&J with smooth peanut butter and grape jelly. Please confirm whether it will be ready for pickup by 1:00 PM. Leave home around 12:55 PM to arrive at the bodega by 1:00 PM, allowing a few minutes for any last-minute preparation. Head over, grab that sandwich and go pay for it at the counter.

7. Presentation (Tell a story):

To make ordering easier, I will call my bodega at 12:45 PM to request a whole wheat PB&J with smooth peanut butter and grape jelly. This gives them ample time to make it, and there is plenty of time on my part because, by 1:00 PM, I'll leave home around 12:55 PM to arrive just as the sandwich is ready, making for a quick and efficient pickup without any wait. I will come in and pick it up and enjoy it fresh. This way, I will get exactly what I want without any waiting, ready for an easy and quite gratifying lunch.