Hw Assignment #7- Order a PB&J from your local bodega

Step 1- Identify the problem

I'm on lunch break currently and am deciding on what to eat. I want something quick and simple like a PB&J sandwich.

Step 2- What do I need to know

- Does my local bodega offer PB&J? (sells pre-made sandwiches at all?)
- Place an order in person or through a call?
- Is this the quickest option for a simple meal? (compare it to other delis or local groceries)
- ensure of any dietary restrictions from PB&J (such as nut)

Step 3- Data collection

Availability- Yes, my local bodega has PB&J pre-made sandwiches available with stock.

Preferences- I want a simple PB&J sandwich and I have no dietary restrictions at all.

Pricing- It cost roughly $5 for 1 PB&J at my local bodega, whereas other delis and groceries hover at the $6 mark.

Step 4- Data organization

Availability- Local bodega has plenty of PB&J in store.

Preferences- Regular PB&J, no dietary restrictions.

Pricing- Local bodega: $5, other places: $6.

Step 5- Identify the relationship

Cause: I want a simple and quick lunch so I order a PB&J from my local bodega.

Effect: My local bodega has PB&J available so I pick it up in store and have a quick lunch.

Step 6- Find the solution

- Locate my local bodega and seek for PB&J availability.
- If yes, scroll through the menu that displays PB&J pre-made sandwiches.
- Take note of any dietary restrictions, if nothing wrong proceed.
- Place the order in person or through a call if allowed.
- Make a payment and pick it up in the store.
- Enjoy the quick lunch.

Step 7- Tell the story

I'm on lunch break and have 10 minutes to order food and eat. I need something quick and simple yet delicious. I locate my local bodega and see that they offer PB&J pre-made sandwiches for only $5. I look at the menu and see no dietary restrictions whatsoever. I proceed to place my order through a call and come pick it up in person which is only like a minute away. I come by the store, make a payment, receive my lunch and enjoy the meal.
